

Sponsorship Opportunity on www.PalanpurOnline.com

Dear Sir/Madam,

Warm greetings on behalf of Palanpuronline.com, a community website that seeks to foster and strengthen the bonds between the Palanpuri community – wherever they are in the world.

FOSTERING INTERACTION

This website is an attempt to help us re-establish and nurture the link with the land of our forefathers. It will be a virtual platform for sharing information and thoughts, learning more about our culture and heritage, and staying abreast with news of the community and its hometown.

Additionally, and importantly, it will also play the role of an intra-community networking resource, hosting information and contact details of Palanpuri families across the world.

We hope and expect the website to become a genuine resource to foster interaction among us, build and strengthen our bonds and create an entirely new paradigm to enrich and enlarge the community spirit amongst us.

Connect. Share. Unite. That's what we hope this platform will do!

SUPPORT THIS INITIATIVE

This online community network is a platform ideally suited to the needs of the emerging tech-savvy, global generation, one that will give a new shape and form to the strong bonds that exist within the community. Yet it cannot be successful without the strong backing and support of the community.

The website is being envisaged not as a commercial venture. Hence we are inviting a few sponsors / donors to help us develop and grow it.

In the same spirit that members of the community have always come forward to generously support different social initiatives related to Palanpur and Palanpuris, we invite you to become a sponsor of this new social networking platform.

The Sponsorship Opportunity is for a sponsorship banner throughout the website. The banner locations are indicated in the Release Order and will have a "1 out of 4" rotation only. The Banner order will be on a first-come first-serve basis.
